We will continue to encourage such cooperative efforts, seeking to preserve established relationships and create new ones as God leads the Association.
- 7.02 Our cooperative efforts should uphold our Baptist distinctives and further the cause of Christ. Our doctrinal distinctives are represented in such confessions of faith as: the New Hampshire Baptist Confession, 1833, the Abstract of Principles of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, 1858; and the Baptist Faith and Message 1925, 1963, and 2000. These theological statements note that such statements constitute a consensus of opinion of Middle District Baptists. We do not regard them as complete statements of our faith, having any quality of finality or infallibility. That the sole authority for faith and practice among Baptists is the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Confessions are only guides in interpretation, having no authority over the conscience.
